At the close of the quarter ended November 8, Miss Lillian A. Eckloff was discontinued as acting principal and Mr. E. H. Kohn, the principal, assumed charge Monday. Under Miss Eckloff's management the school has been brought to a high standard of efficiency and is pronounced by the superintendent to have no superior in discipline.

The superintendent also speaks in the highest terms of praise of the result of the first quarterly examination at the Third Ward school and of the high efficiency of the teachers there.
The following pupils have also been promoted upon their evidence of proficiency:
